

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES FOR FOREIGN INVESTORS

Foreign investors with limited ties to the United States often find the administration of investments, assets and other interests in the U.S. burdensome. Logistical, communication oversight and other challenges are common. Prominent international families and business owners turn to Marks Paneth & Shron LLP as a cost-effective way to administer their U.S. affairs. Our ability to provide personalized attention to their interests eases intrusion, provides peace of mind, maximizes opportunities and avoids missed deadlines, all without significant overhead costs.
